[XXIst Year.] THURSDAY, July 11, 1765. [No. 1053.]

LONDON, April 19.

THERE is no Liberty in this Country, which is held more dear than that of the PRESS, nor indeed with so much Reason; for if that is destroyed, what we have else to boast of, is gone in an Instant. Arbitrary Ministers (and none but such) are Enemies to this Liberty, because it ever has been a Check upon their Tyranny. But, if ever that Time should come when the Press may be punished without a JURY (that great and solemn Privilege of Englishmen delivered down to us by our virtuous and spirited Ancestors) may we not fear the Liberties of this Country, and all the Blessings of this Country, and all the Blessings which it boasts above other Nations, will be departed forever? While we have JURIES, we may be free, or if we are not, it is our own fault.—And if these are taken from us, we shall be the mere Slaves of a Minister, who may do as he pleases; may by innuendo and illegal Construction, order his Myrmidons to hunt Printers and Publishers, till he is entirely rid of the PRESS.

To the PRINTER.

I AM just come to Town, and the first News I heard was, that the PRINTERS and PUBLISHERS are all frightened out of their Wits, and that the LIBERTY of the PRESS was upon the Verge of Destruction. As I know not what Ground there might be for these Assertions, I made some Enquiry, and found sure enough that you PRINTERS and PUBLISHERS have but too much Reason to be alarmed; for during the last Twelve Months, there have been no less than EIGHT Attacks upon the PRESS. Indeed this is serious Business and well deserves some sober Consideration, and in my Opinion, (would in any Times, but the present) make a Minister think so. However, I cannot think the People quite so Lethargic as some Folks in Power tell me; they say the People are quite satisfied, are perfectly easy in their Minds, and sincerely believe that their Liberties and their Interests are undoubtedly secure in the Hands of the present Administration.—May be so.—Nobody desires to have the Liberty of this Country more secure than I do: But I cannot help saying, that this Court Cant, very ill agrees with certain very public Transactions. Can our Liberties be secure, when that great and essential One of the PRESS is daily attacked, and PRINTERS and BOOK-SELLERS are so terrified by uncommon Rigour, that they will neither print nor publish? Can our Liberties be secure, if that highest and most valuable of all our Liberties, a JURY, be taken from us? To destroy the Liberty of the PRESS, and take away Trials by JURY, are what despotic Ministers have ever aimed at, as the only Bars to their arbitrary Designs. Therefore if any Steps are taken for accomplishing these, can the great People think, the little Ones are such Fools, as to still believe their Liberties are secure? It is such an Absurdity, that one can compare it to nothing but the deceitful Conduct of a certain Martyr, who, while he pretended to be a Friend to Liberty, was making the most alarming Strides towards Tyranny.—From such Times, good Lord deliver us! Yes, and in North-America we offer up the same Prayer.

Virtus Parentum.

WESTMINSTER RACES.

THE greatest Match that ever was made, is now depending between John Bull, Esqr's old blood-bay Horse Public, and Lord Caledonia's grey Mare Regency. It is to be run over the Dodging Course, Public carrying twelve Stone, Regency only a Feather.

Public was got by Brunswick Honesty, his Grandsire by Revolution William a well-bred Son of the famous Horse Liberty. Public's Dam was English Bess, that beat old Lord Bolingbroke's Mary Scot, Daughter of Highlander. English Bess was got by the Hampden Stallion, out of a Ludlow Mare, full Sister to Oliver Tartar, Parliament John, and Joyce's Lopptop, all of the old Blood of the Magna Charta Stallion.

Regency was got by the Stuart Stallion Scabby Jemmy, out of the Old Pretender's Mare Passive Obedience, full Sister to Non-Resistance, Daughters of the Pope's Milk white Stallion Infallibility, out of the noted Inquisition Mare Firetail.

Scabby Jemmy is a Son of Highland Mac, out of the terrible Mountain Mare Mangey Moggie, whose Blood is in high Estimation at present, and preserved in the Luton Stud.

The Odds are at present ten to one Regency against Public, Public being very aged, and manifestly in a deep decline of Constitution.

Public won several very great Matches against Lewis Baboon, Esqr's best Cattle, and never was beat, when fairly and honestly rode. Public won the great Sweepstakes over Culloden moor, April 16, 1746, beating James Stuart, Esqr's Highland Laddie, Lewis Baboon, Esqr's Bravo, Mr. Provost's Flower of Edinburgh, the Manchester Gelding Wrong-head, Mr. Wales's Watkin, and Mr. Irish's Whiteboy; but this was won, in a great Measure, by the Resolution and Skill of Will Royal, who rode him, as Public was almost run off his Legs, and had been beat a little before in two Matches, wholly owing to the want of Judgment in his Riders.

Public had most Success when rode by Will Royal, Brunswick Ferdi, or Ned Hawk, and when trained and brought to the Post by old Newcastle Tom, or Pinsent Will.

Public's Legs began to swell, and to appear full of Humours, about the Time of signing the Peace of Paris; since which Time his Coat has never looked well, and he has been very Short-winded, and quite out of order. It was a very near Thing last Year, between Public, and the Scotch Horse Prerogative, Public winning by only half a Neck, a very up-hill Course, and Prerogative's Rider, Jack Doubleface, did not only cross and jostle, but made several Attempts to throw old Public down, whose Weakness he well knew; but honest Phil Furyman, who rode Public, was too knowing for him. This last Match strained the old Horse very much, so that little now can be expected from the good old Horse, who is also very much overweighted.

Regency is now in very high Condition, having been highly fed, and is so frisky, and has such a way of kicking, that it is to be feared he will drive old Public quite out of the Course: The only chance Public can possibly have of winning, will be by having a very honest and able Rider. It has been reported that Charles Changeable is to ride old Public, and wear a Party coloured black and white, or Magpye Jacket, but all Well-wishers hope that it will be honest Pinsent Will in Orange. Regency's Rider is fixed, Sandy Stuart in Plaid, and a Bonnet. However, we are sorry to add, that it is also reported that Pinsent Will does not care to ride, as he says Public is very much out of Condition, and has been growing so a-pace, ever since he lost his good old Master George Steady, Esq; whose chief Delight was to take the greatest Care of Public, his only Favourite.

In case Pinsent Will should decline riding, a good steady honest Rider is wanted. Great Encouragement will be given.—Enquire at the Bar of Wildman's.

N. B. Crossing and jostling Regency's Owners call fair play.

LONDON, April 30.

IT is said, that a Great Personage has signified a Desire to visit some of the Northern Provinces of America this Summer, on which Occasion Lord Edgecombe will hoist a Flag at Plymouth.

'Tis said the principal Merchants concerned in the Trade of a certain American Colony, have lately received such Accounts from thence, that an Application above has been judged absolutely necessary, and we are told the same will take place in a few Days.

An Express is arrived in Town with the agreeable News, that the large Chest of Money, which was lost in December 1763 by the Loss of the Lisbon Packet, is, by the Help of the Divers, found, and was brought safe on Shore at Falmouth on Friday. It contained upwards of 30,000 l.

Part of a Letter from Quebec says, "The very "Existence of this Place as a Commercial Pro-"vince, depends upon a total Change of the un-"happy and preposterous Measures now adopted. "I can do no more, for my Senses are lost in the "tumultuous Noise of the Populace, who are just "carrying out to Execution a certain Effigy, with "the most bitter Execrations."

We hear such of the American Colonies as have not been reimbursed their Proportion of the Expences in the Expeditions of the Year 1762, will soon have the King's Warrant on the Treasury for discharging the same.

We hear some Dispatches of Consequence have within these few Days been received from Chief Justice Gregory of his Majesty's Province of Quebec, which have already been laid before a Cabinet Council.

A Person of considerable Eminence in the literary World has made Choice of a modern Story for the Subject of a Tragedy. General Wolfe is to be the Hero, and the Title of the Play, The Siege of Quebec.

It is said that Duelling will be made a capital Offence, without Distinction of Persons, with regard to the Aggressor.

It is said a great Personage won 12,000 l. last Monday at New-market, in the Match between his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland's King Herod, and the Duke of Grafton's Antonius.

May 4. It is said, that not only a certain Governor in North-America, is ordered home, but that a whole Regiment is ordered to return from thence.

Monday last his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland's Horse King Herod, beat the Duke of Grafton's Horse Antonius at New-market, for 1000 Guineas.

NEWPORT, (in Rhode-Island) June 10.

Mr. Hall,

TUESDAY Evening last, about IX o'Clock, his Majesty's Ship the Maidstone's Boat was taken from one of the Wharves, by a Mob consisting chiefly of Sailors, Boys and Negroes, to the Number of above Five Hundred, haul'd up thro' Queen-Street to the Common, at the upper End of the Town, where they burnt her, in the Circle of the exasperated Tumult; which I believe every sensible Man in Town much regrets, and am persuaded was out of the Power of the Authority to prevent her Fate, as it was but a few Minutes from the Time of their taking her to her being in Flames ——The Cause of this Mischief was, the Officers of the Maidstone, a few Hours before, impressing all the Men out of a Brigantine from Africa, last from Jamaica, after some small Resistance made by the Crew, and not a little Severity exercised by the Officers and People of the Maidstone; which, together with the Behaviour of this Set of Myrmidons, for 4 or 5 Weeks past, who have visited every Vessel entering the Harbour, (our Wood-Boats, and the very smallest Coasters, not excepted) to impress Men, and have generally taken all that did not belong to the Town of Newport (as Capt. Antrobus had given his Word to the Sheriff, that he would take none of those; yet the Consequence of these arbitrary and illegal Measures, especially in Time of profound Peace, proves as fatal to the Inhabitants of the Town) We already feel the Effects; Seamen's Wages advanced nearly one Dollar and a Half per Month, our Wood Wharves almost clear of Wood, the Coasters from the neighbouring Governments shunning our Port, to escape the hottest Press ever known in this Town; and if a speedy Stop does not take Place, the lamentable Condition of the poorer Part of the Inhabitants, the approaching Winter, will be truly affecting, as in May, June, July, and August, the Town is mostly supplied with Wood.

The Measures taken by the Rabble is by no Means to be countenanced, much less approved of; yet it is to be hoped, the Authority of the principal Part of the Gentlemen in Town, will interpose in its Relief, (before our Distresses are more sensibly felt, or past Remedy for this Season) either by persuasive Arguments with Capt. Antrobus, to desist pursuing or allowing these unpopular Methods of manning his Majesty's Ship, by impressing in the very Bowels of the Town; or, if this should fail, an Exertion of every Power, which ought, and must necessarily take Place, for Self-preservation, for Safety of Life and Property.

Is it not amazing, that one of the least of his Majesty's Ships, in perfect Tranquility, should distress us in this unheard of Manner?——These are serious Truths, which I only hint at, in hopes some one of more Leisure, and better Capacity, will delineate in a proper Light. Our Seamen impressed, and driven from our Service; the Coasters, who supply the Inhabitants with Necessaries of Life, driven from our Harbour, the few who visit us, often brought to, under the Maidstone's Stern, and perhaps detained some Days, for having only Two or Three Hundred Feet of Boards upon Deck, on their Wood, brought not Twenty Miles from our Harbour, their Releasement obtained by arduous Solicitations, and great Importunity with the Officer in Command on board the Maidstone, the principal, often absent.

I am credibly informed by those Masters of Vessels, who went on board the Maidstone to pay Seamen their Wages, that were impress'd, that they were treated with all imaginable Contempt and Disrespect, and used in such a Manner as it would be to Credit to his Majesty's Officers to relate. Others that went on board to carry Seamen their Chests and Bedding, had their Boat turn'd adrift and themselves put under Confinement, and detained all Night, and this previous to their Boat's being burnt, or the least Disrespect shewn them on Shore; on the contrary, I may aver, with Truth, suitable Regard has always been paid his Majesty's Sea Officers by the Gentlemen of the Town.—Our Fish Market, a considerable Support of the Town, is greatly distressed, as few of the Fishermen dare venture out, it being reported none shall escape the Impress.

I have not exaggerated Matters, but studied more to extenuate our Misery, and only throw a few Hints together, as they occurred, hoping the Subject may employ an able Head, to set the Matter of the Loss of the Maidstone's Boat, with every Circumstance that fired the Mob and Boat, in an impartial and true Light.

I am, &c. O. G.

I. P. 51 G.

I TAKE this Opportunity of returning my most grateful Thanks to those Ladies and Gentlemen from whom I have had Encouragement since I settled in Town: And as some Reports of a most malicious Nature have been industriously spread, intentionally to injure me in my Profession, I hope the kind Intentions of my Friends may not be lessened thereby, nor the Minds of the Public prejudiced against me, by such unjust, and really ungenteel, Assertions; and which, I am sorry to apprehend, have been most cruelly made use of against me by a Person of some Distinction of that Sex, which are rather more remarkable for distinguishing themselves in Instances of Tenderness than Cruelty: However I hope my Enemy in Town will desist from endeavouring to hurt me, and consider the Consequence of injuring (merely from Calumny) a young Man at his first Entrance into the World. And those in the Country, will, I suppose, decline exercising their Spite, as they perceive it's Impotence, and will, I hope, find to their Discredit, that low Insinuations seldom influence, but with Minds as despicable as the Authors of them.

I beg Leave humbly to request the farther Encouragement of the Public, which I shall desire no longer than till I shall cease from endeavouring to deserve it, as I am determined to use all possible Diligence for the Improvement of the Youth committed to my Care, as well as to deserve the Approbation of the Public in other Respects.

THE Subscriber takes this Method of informing the Public that he has opened a Bank of COAL in Chesterfield County, which he delivers at Chester, about Half a Mile above Warwick, on James River, at which Place he has erected a Spout, at the lower End of which there is 3 Fathom Water, so that the Coal will run from the Waggons into the Vessels, and he can deliver 2 or 3000 Bushels in a Day. He has now at the Spot 6000 Bushels for Sale, and will, on proper Notice, oblige himself to deliver any Quantity wanted. The Coal has been used for some Time by all the Blacksmiths in the Neighbourhood, who inform it is as good as any they ever worked with; and this he has the Testimony of many Gentlemen of Character to vouch for. The Price is 12 d. per Bushel; and he hopes, as he is able to give such Dispatch in loading of Vessels, without any Trouble to the Persons on board except that of trimming, he will meet with proper Encouragement. Any Orders he may be favoured with are desired to be left with Mr. Archibald Cary, or Mr. Walter Buchanan, Merchant, at Warwick.
